

To whom this may concern:

Northeast Indiana Soccer Referee Association (NEISRA) would like to nominate Caleb Frey for the Young Male Referee of the Year Award. Caleb has been an outstanding asset to our referee organization, as well as an active student athlete.

Caleb has had his official's license since Spring 2001, and has been extremely dedicated to refereeing all levels of soccer, from youth to adult. He has refereed a wide variety of events, from recreational games to more competitive tournaments. He has also refereed the preliminary cup for the past four years, and was selected to referee at the State Cup for the past two years. He has also shown great commitment to improving his refereeing skills, and was selected to attend the ODP camp instructed by Austin Gomez at Northern Illinois University in July 2006.

In addition to being an upcoming leader on the soccer field, Caleb has been very involved in his high school extracurricular events. He has been a member of his high school Student Government for the past four years. In this organization, he has served as a class representative, and was a fundamental part of the Prom Planning Committee in the spring of 2006. Currently, he is the treasurer of the National Honor Society, which he has been a member of for the past 3 years. In the Central Noble Theater Company, Caleb has been tremendously active in a variety of productions. He was awarded the Thurston Award for Outstanding Freshman in the spring of 2004 and was named to the Honors Theater company in fall 2005.

For the past four years, Caleb has played high school soccer, where he has served as a captain for the past two seasons. In the fall of 2005, he was named the Defensive Player of the Year and the Most Valuable Player by his coaches. In the most recent season, Caleb received the Defensive Player of the Year award from his coaches once again. He was also named to the KPC All Area Soccer team, and was named to the first team Northeast Corner Conference (NECC) All-Conference.

Caleb has also wrestled on the varsity wrestling team for four years, and has been a proven leader both on and off the mats. In the 2005-2006 season, Caleb was a sectional champion and a state qualifier. He was also the recipient of the Coach's Award and NECC all-conference. In his current season, Caleb is serving as captain of his squad.

Finally, Caleb has been an outstanding asset to his community through a variety of service activities. He has been a participant in the Relay for Life for the past five years. He has also participated in [service projects]

As a referee, Caleb has shown great leadership on the field and a commitment to the excellence of the game. For his outstanding example, as well as his well-rounded demeanor and many contributions to the community, we would like to nominate Caleb Frey for the Young Male Referee of the Year award.
